

This Is The End

Mind Assault

Feed me all of your lies, devour it one by one.
Until I am bursting, without anger you are nothing.
No good are all you're please, listening to my own voice.
Send in men for dying, wasting youth with your lying.

Take your lies and get on your knees, beg for forgiveness
and you will receive.

The force of my power, the powers in me.
Weapons and destruction.
This is the end!

Give me a reason to stop.
Nothing you say will help you.
Your time is running out; fear me because I am the enemy.

Take your lies and get on your knees, beg for forgiveness
and you will receive.

The force of my power, the powers in me.
Weapons and destruction.
This is the end!

Break all of your promises; go back on what you said.
I will never trust you, without anger I am nothing.
Why don't you lead from the front?
Feel the fear you inflict.
Take back blackened memories, nightmares for the rest of your life.
