

We Will Prevail

Mind Assault

Pushing forward against the grain
Reveal the truth with our weapon
In this fight we'll bleed together.
Kill and conquer we stand forever.
We will prevail. Fight till the end.
Kill not be killed. We will prevail
Breaking all the rules
Never looking back
Metal is forever
This is fucking what we choose
Bound by corporate chains
Release our anger and escape
Through this chaos our voice is heard
Why try dictate, you we eradicate
We will prevail. Fight till the end.
Kill not be killed. We will prevail
Breaking all the rules
Never looking back
Metal is forever
This is fucking what we choose
You try to drown us and smother this flame.
Swallow your poison and watch us prevail.
