

Introspection

mind.in.a.box

two days ago I woke up underwater.
they were watching me from outside,
and somehow I now knew their names.
Night and the Friend just smiled at me,
and then the glass shattered.

I awoke in an empty flat that told me nothing,
and I knew that I had to get away.
White had tried to erase my identity,
but the Sleepwalkers had saved my mind.
