

dialing
it's me.
everything went fine.
we attached the trace and he doesn't suspect a thing.
he's so blind, he will never know.

not yet. but we will know very soon now.

alright. I'll let you know.

dialing
he is looking for her.
we thought he doesn't know, but now he seems really desperate to find her.

no! I think we should take him out now!

alright. I'll get back to the trace.

dialing
it's me.
everything is fine.
he's still looking, but he seems to know less than we thought.

...

yes, that's the problem.

but I don't think he'll be able to do that.

fine. later.

dialing
he has found her! he's not yet there but he will be very soon.
we have to get everything ready.

yes.

she is unable to recognize him, but that won't make a difference for long.

but it won't matter anyway if everything goes as planned.

alright, I'll do that. he won't be able to escape,
and we still have the trace in place.

...

yes. I'm sure.

later.
