

Pictures Of Doodie

Mindless Self Indulgence

Look, what I got to say is in my ass.

When the camera is invented -
that would be the day.
That I decided to take pictures of my doodie.

here it's how it goes gonna be a somebody that is not us
it's gonna be a somebody else.
I want the money - MONEY
I want my money back.
you fucking little brat
you took my fucking shit
and you sold it behind my back

When the camera is invented -
that would be the day.
That I decided to take pictures of my doodie.

I need some money.
And I wanna be starting to sell...
pictures of my dew-teh.
Doo-teh. Pure. Round doo-teh.
Then as many more what I came from.

Where will you be selling these?

From my house
