

Couldn't Stand The Rain

Mindy Smith

The storm passed over and I'll miss the thunder
That bridge I hid under can't save anyone anyhow
I couldn't stand the rain
I couldn't take the pain
I'll never be the same
Theres no one to blame

The skys turning brighter so I stepped outta my shelter
I hearts gettin lighter and I'll live in the here and now
I couldn't stand the rain
I couldn't take the pain
I never be the same
No one here to blame

Theres always a silver lining
The sun is always shinning so cheer up now stop your whinning keep on fighting
I couldn't stand the rain
I couldn't take the pain
I will never be the same
Theres no one here to blame
