

Peace Of Mind

Mindy Smith

I need peace of mind
And a hopeful heart
To lose this rage
And move out of the dark
I ain't looking for rainbows
Or shooting stars
Just some peace of mind
And a hopeful heart

I need a peace of mind
And a lullaby
Cause theres an angry voice
In my head tonight
Tellin' me to do things
That can't be right
I need peace of mind
And a lullaby

And a miracle
For this broken soul
A little miracle
For this broken soul

I need peace of mind
And gentle hand
As I try to change
The way I am
And God forgives me
When I can't
I need peace of mind
And a gentle hand

Or a miracle
For this broken soul
A little miracle
For this broken soul

I need peace of mind
And a hopeful heart
