

Please Stay

Mindy Smith

Love is a heartache you live and learn it take what you need from me you have won my favor yours is bright light a soul on fire
my inspriation you take my spirit higher.

So keep on dancing through my dreams don't wander far from me if somebody tries to steal you away
please stay.

If I were to lose this
I don't know what I'd do It's hard to imagine A life without having a love so true.

So keep on dancing through my dreams
don't wander far from me
if somebody tries to steal you away

keep on dancing through my dreams
don't wander far from me
if somebody tries to steal you away

please stay.
