

Returning Fire With Fire

Mindy Smith

Revenge is bitter sweet
A basic human instinct
Try to fight but it's calling me
So loud that it's hard to think

The memory that you left me with
There's something that I can't forget
Plays through mind like a bad film
And nothing can erase it

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
Gonna see it through
Returning fire w/ fire

What goes around comes around
Finds its way back somehow
It might leave you alone for now
But it's hiding in the underground

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
Gonna see it through
Returning fire w/ fire 2x's

Pacing back and forth like a cat in a cage
Revving like an engine ready to race
You'll wanna start running cause its heading out your 2x's

I'm gunning for you
My one and only desire
Gonna see it through
Returning fire w/ fire
