

The Ministry Has Fallen

Ministry of Magic

We must admit
We knew it would happen It's just a matter of when and where and how we will defend each other We'll find it someday (find it someday) a way back home and love will reclaim what shadows stole

The Ministry has fallen, clearly we are on our own
Evil divides those who survive
It's scattered wide
Cause they are coming
They are coming

We feel it slip the world as we know it breaks beneath us
As we take flight, there's no time for goodbyes this time
We'll find it someday (find it someday) a way back home
and love will reclaim what shadows stole

Evil divides those who survive
It's scattered wide
Cause they are coming
They are coming
Yeah they are coming they are coming X5

The Ministry has fallen clearly we are on our own
Evil divides those who survive
It's scattered wide
They are coming
Yeah, they are coming
