Cuttin' pictures from a magazine
...paper smile but not from you to me
Another statue in a?
A breakfast alone
Another compromising?
Another game show

I pass the time away before I sleep
I have your picture sitting next to me
I taped your picture in a book
Don't bother reading I just take a look
Don't have to turn the page before I know
So full of answers I don't need to know
I like to take control
I like the game show

Don't have to turn the page before I know
You ask me questions I already know
The time has finally come to let it go
I like to take control
I like the game show
