Ministry

yo! this is a test

you say this when I say that
but i'm not with that so step back or kiss my... cos I won't be held back so don't fight or dis' or piss me off cos i'm not soft or weak running down in the maze of the day this is a new phase don't be commercial or sell out or get the hell out of this business but I won't be caught in that net of suckers and glass people, weak, beaten down and feeble society probably wants me to give up
as I live up to be my best in a test
a fight for death as I fight for my very last breath and etc.
gotta be strong
but wait a minute
now could I be better?
now could I be better?
well, only I know
well, what about you?
or do you have a clue?
could've, would've, should've - it's too late
why you waiting, laying, sit there? move!
be your own person!

wake up, make up your mind seek the knowledge that you will find
wait for it from the weak cos they make the people level and with you make a team so believe, and be your best cos this is a test
go for the top chart
rock with all your heart rock-hard, stay up, go deal with what's going on in this crazy world
man woman child boy girl insane to the playing love music power pain
be what you gotta do get the knowing attitude
that we suggest

be your own person!
this is... a test!

cos we all know who is the real victim society does not want them picked on labelled or staked, don't raise his guilt, don't miss your boot and kicked him faceless in the morning in their urban plight felt like a symbol with every situation any one tour already overcrowded project nation, more inflation better your damn situation but how can you better your situation if you have no occupation?
ten of us said, watch the rolodex center see how many different schools you can enter they're out turning in the pit, but life's a bitch the world's unconcerned i'll tell you why it's stuck in a ditch you own the key to the damn city but it's a damn pity
