

Completely

Mint Condition

It took a long long time
To realize just what I was missing in my life.
My heart seemed paralyzed to you, right
And the best I've had complain.
How I operate, I hesitate
When asked if I hand down take
To be your mate, to take my name
I kept holding on tightly I kept holding on
To something I didn't know
Maybe it was that x2
I just wanted to stay in control.
But she showed me the way that love could be
When you surrender honesty.

I can breath, I'm finally the man I want to be
I'm all the way dedicated, completely.

Relentless love,
You showed me so openly
So even when it gets rough
I've never seen this kind of thing
Wanna share it all with you.
And elevate, hiking up this flame
Girl what I'm saying it's true.
If I cut my face, I'd bleed your name
We'll keep holding on tightly we'll keep holding on Cause you're the mate for my soul
Yeah
Ain't looking back (2x)
I am free from all control
You showed me the way that love should be
When you surrender honesty.

I can breath, I'm finally the man I want to be
I'm all the way dedicated, completely.
I can breath, I'm finally the man I want to be
I'm all the way dedicated, completely.

Oooh
I can breath, I'm finally the man I want to be
I'm all the way dedicated, completely.
I can breath, I'm finally the man I want to be
I'm all the way dedicated, completely.
I can breath, I'm finally the man I want to be
I'm all the way dedicated, completely.
Oooh oh oh
Oooh The man I want to be, yeah. Completely.
