

Fake!

Minuit

It's fake, its fake
Just take everything you hate and make
It stand before you and debate its case
The reasons why it should be in this place, this place, this place

The game is not
To be repeated but just played again
Until that most important day, today
You say you'll make all of them pay their way to see the grave

I thought I'd start you
Off in hell first
And then I'd move you
To some place that's much worse
But safer than death, but safer than death
Much safer than death
