

Lock The Doors Block The Roads

Minuit

You really could be the nemesis of our race
The mastermind in disgrace
You really could be the hallowed see
The hater of controversy
You really could be the prophecy
The speaker of a million tongues the voting masses number one
The voting mass is number one

Lock the doors, block the roads
Turn the lights down low Here's the crowd, here we go
The voting mass is number one
The voting mass is number one

Even if you're lying please tell me that everything's going to be fine

Even if it's lying I want you to tell me that everything's fine
