

Suave As Sin

Minuit

Well he's as suave as sin
Listen listen listen
But I know where he's been
Listen listen listen listen this time
Listen listen listen

You never say hello
You always say goodbye
It's just like you are always leaving
And never seem to arrive

You are here, I exist
We'll fight the nothingness
I'm in the kitchen cleaning the silver
He's in the bedroom at the computer
