

Erase

Minus the Bear

I don't want any memory of you, no
I don't have the time or patience to spend on you
I erase every touch or tear away
Until the page is empty and wearing through

No more, can't live through all my loss
No more bleeding for you

I'm not here anymore than you ahead, no
I never thought I'd feel so removed from you

No more, can't live through all my loss
No more bleeding for you

No more, can't live through all my loss
No more bleeding for you

No more, can't live through all my loss
No more bleeding for you
