

Fooled by the Night

Minus the Bear

I am not going to leave you
Not for good
You are the real one
And I am your fool

Fooled by the night
And drinking the poison
Enough to get right
Then to freeze frame vision

Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
Only see in

Gone for days in the country and I'm alone
This old wood stove cooks my food and keeps me warm
A dog in the night singing his song
Drinking the poison until my visions gone

Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
I only see in
Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
I only see in

Her heels click on the sidewalk
Adding tempo to the sound
Of the city living heart
This ain't no one bar town

Holding a new hand
She don't know his last name
She doesn't need the anguish or the pain

He had a place that was just up the street
She was down for the walk
He had a view that couldn't be beat
And the looks and the talk

He put the right music on
That music led her astray
Touching her just like he should
She was heading that way

Moving though her tangent
Couldn't breathe couldn't talk
Falling in lust with an accident
Sometimes time seems to stop

He put the right music on
That music led her astray
Touching her just like he should
She was heading that way

Freeze frame vision

Freeze frame vision
Only see in
Freeze frame vision
I only see in

Mornings barely breathing when I awake
I need something to kill this dull ache
Have you been sleeping or is it still your town
Are you drinking the poison then phasing me out

Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
Only see in

Freeze frame vision
Freeze frame vision
I only see in

She's getting close and he doesn't know
