

Hey! Is That A Ninja Up There?

Minus the Bear

We're racing through the dark
On a road along the shore
And the law says we should stop
So we break a couple more
With the windows all down
We just throw the cans out

And now you're laughing through the wind
Swearing we won't do it again

We're off
Too much now
Pay off
Sells itself
We cough
Too much now
Yeah, we're too young
For ourselves

We're racing through the dark
Down the beach by the pier
And you ran into the sea
Like a cop without fear
You're gonna ruin your shoes
You're gonna ruin your shoes

And you waded through the bay
Like you do it every day

We're off
Too much now
Pay off
Sells itself
We cough
Too much now
Yeah, we're too young
For ourselves

The bay's so uncertain
It's too cold but we swim
Rain could come at any moment
The graces floating in
Girl, just kiss me

I couldn't sleep for days
And I couldn't believe
You couldn't come too soon
To break me from the room
And now I'll sleep for days
But in a different place

We're off
Too much now
Pay off
Sells itself
We cough
Too much now

Yeah, we're too young
For ourselves
