

Lighthouse

Minus the Bear

I close my eyes, I am floating out at sea
Only in thoughts, silver salver over me
Open my eyes, you are as far as I can see
Only sound, is the wave holding me

Here is a new idea
Get out of your head, into your life
Here is a new idea
Get out of your head, out of your fear

Lighthouse don't burn out
The gray is breaking me
Lighthouse don't let me drown
The rain won't wash away

In my mind, I am higher than the sea
I escape, falling into you on the screen
My memory, taken like the violent sea
Try to swim, the ocean sinks this vessel, me

Here is a new idea
Get out of your head, into your life
Here is a new idea
Get out of your head, out of your fear

Lighthouse don't burn out
The gray is breaking me
Lighthouse don't let me drown
The rain won't wash away
