

Riddles

Minus the Bear

Oh I see all those riddles in your eyes
Makin' me so sick when I have to leave your side
Your school girl voice is the perfect place to hide
Your little sacrifices...

Oh no, oh no, why do you let me go
When the first word from your mouth was no
I stayed and played your game until you came around
Today is the day that you lock me out

Oh you fooled me about a thousand times
Convincing me that I'm just a city rat sneaking around at night
And I'm so lucky that you're the cat to finally take my life
I'm just your sacrifice

Oh no, oh no, why do you let me go
When the first word from your mouth was no
I stayed and played your game until you came around
Today is the day that you locked me out

Oh no, oh no why do you let me go
When the first word from your mouth was no
I stayed and played your game until you came around
Today is the day that you locked me out

Oh no oh no, just look what I've become
Oil stain on a white dove.
Oh no, I may never make you clean
Girl just take a look at me

Oh no, oh no
Oh no, oh no....
Oh no
Oh no
