

Brothers Of The Creed

Miracle Of Sound

Eyes of Eden are on me
Break through the memories
History in the mainframe
Eve by the apple tree

Search through every enigma
Answers never there
Codes and canon are shifting as we
Shakedown every lair

And I kill for good under my white hood

Zeroes and ones I bleed
We're Brothers of the Creed

Cry to Lady Minerva
Tell me your prophecies
Legends turning to truth now
Stop this spreading disease

See the world in a dark room
Masayef to Rome
Wires and numbers and data
Have become my home

And I kill for good under my white hood

Zeroes and ones I bleed
We're Brothers of the Creed

Eyes of Eden are on me....
