

Shadows in the Moonlight

Miracle Of Sound

Race you to the top
Behold the distant streets below
Times I hoped would last forever
Never older grow

They took my peace
They took my name
My family

In a pallid robe
And cryptic code
My destiny

Secret sign
Shadows in the moonlight
Clandestine
Flashes of a pale white
Climb the highest peaks of history

On Venetian stone
I climb and clamber
Cloaked in dark
Pools of crimson sin
On swollen throats I leave my mark

I take their blood
I hear their last confessions seep
I'm the shrouded face of reckoning
That haunts their sleep

Secret sign
Shadows in the moonlight
Clandestine
Flashes of a pale white
Climb the highest peaks of history

Requiescat In Pace

Take my revelations
Make them your salvation

On shores of gold
My tale will end
A love to hold
A life to spend
Secret sign
Shadows in the moonlight
Clandestine
Flashes of a pale white
Climb the highest peaks of history
