

The Crush

Miracle Of Sound

Drifting
On a wave of devastation
Plunge into the frenzied sea
My mind is open in this shell so violent and vast Fall into fear, don't let me lose myself in the past

I wanna feel that power surge
Two minds that were made to merge
Don't make me miss the rush
Take me to the crush

I wanna hear that roarin sound
When I walk I will shake the ground
Don't make me miss the rush
Take me to the crush
Take me to the crush!!

Frame me
In the shell of my colossus
I can reach my certainty
So long I waited for a chance to prove I was right
Don't let me die now when my fists are clenched for the fight

I wanna feel that power surge
Two minds that were made to merge
Don't make me miss the rush
Take me to the crush

I wanna hear that roarin sound
When I walk I will shake the ground
Don't make me miss the rush
Take me to the crush!!

IT'S ALL COMING APART!

I wanna feel that power surge
Two minds that were made to merge
Don't make me miss the rush
Take me to the crush

I wanna hear that roarin sound
When I walk I will shake the ground
Don't make me miss the rush
Take me to the crush!!
