

Bad Boy

Miranda Lambert

saturdays gonna keep you up all night cause sunday morning ain't your style its been awhile since i've seen the sunrise im not sure how you make a leaving you can buy me one of whatever you're drinking im thinking my momma warned me 'bout your kind sure you can light my cigarette don't think you can light my heart don't think i hadn't figured you out from the start giving into bad boys like you never got me very far its trouble now baby drink it down oh you should've seen it coming bad boy driving me mad boy oh i got it bad boy

for you

bad boy maybe its a bad choice mmm i got it bad boy

the more i hear your silence speak the more my curiosity peaks the more i don't wanna leave this bar alone the whiskey's making me wonder why you wear you're hat down low but you're walls are high how long you gonna hide behind them walls of stones sure you can buy me one more round don't think you can buy my heart

ooh you should've seen it coming
bad boy driving me mad boy

bad boy
oooooo ooo
ooo oooo yeah
