

Tin Man

Miranda Lambert

hey there Mr. Tin Man
you don't know how lucky you are you shouldn't spend your whole life wishin for something bound to fall apart everytime you're feeling empty better thank you lucky stars if you ever felt one breaking you'd never want a heart oooooooo

oo

ive been on the road that you're on it didn't get me very far you ain't missing nothing cause love is so damn hard take it from me darling you don't want a hart

i'm glad we talked this out you can take mine if you want it it's in pieces now by the way there Mr. Tin Man if you don't mind the scars you give me your armor and you can have my heart
