In My Life

Miriam Makeba

There are places I'll remember all my life Though some have changed Some forever, not for better Some are gone and some remain

All these places have their moments With lovers and friends I still can recall Some are dead and some are living In my life, I've loved them all

Out of all these friends and lovers There is no one compares with you And these memories lose their meaning When I think of love as something new

Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life, I love you more

Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and the things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life, I love you more
In my life, I love you more
