

Games of life

Miro Žbirka

You know you're not the one I even meet
You know you're not the one I'm thinking of
You know you're not the one I will succeed
If I needed someone I could love

Someone I could love
Someone I could trust
Love I haven't knew
I'm thinking dust

There must be someone living in this world
Living in this world of fantasy
Someone I've been there to see and thrown
It's getting harder smile as I can see

Stupid games of love
Stupid games of life
I feel getting rough
Black night

Don't let me freeze my heart
Stole me right from the start
Don't let me turn in this way
Don't you see I'm crying
Don't you see I'm dying
We've got to find on that way
Feel I got no fusion in my mind
Getting crazy slowly day by day
Don't know how to walk on down the road
Know it seemed so easy yesterday

Now I feel so strange
Got no energy
Don't know what is lead
For me

Yesterday when I was a boy
Everything was getting wrong to me
Every little thing would bring the joy
Some that I could sing and I could play

Stupid games of love...
Don't let me freeze my heart...
Dah dah dah dah dah...
Don't let me freeze my heart...
