

I wonder

Miro Žbirka

I woke up to the morning light empty bed you're not inside since you've gone baby nothing's right I wonder where you are tonight seven days a week were fine suddenly the sun won't shine breakfast and the tea for two reminds me all the times with you looking back very nice whole wide world in your eyes it feels so cold on lonely road since you've gone baby nothing's right

I wonder where you are tonight
oh I wonder where you be tonight
