

Fallen Rage

Misery Inc.

Thorn in a flesh, pain in your ass. More is your less.
Stain in your face, air in your vein,
another empty place. Now them all feels the same.
You got me on your back, this time is for real.
Got you on the rack.
Show no mercy, feel the fist of pain.
I'll give you tragedy. Now them all feels the same.
Every step I take turn out to be another mistake.
I deserve a reward for all of this.

My fallen rage
falls over you for all the things you do.
My fallen rage
falls over you before I'll kill you too.

Suffer more suffer, that's not enough.
Bleed for me sucker.
Try to judge me now, cry out it loud.
You're dead anyhow,
face your end so calm and proud.
Every step I take turn out to be another mistake.
I deserve a reward for all of this.

My fallen rage
falls over you for all the things you do.
My fallen rage
falls over you before I'll kill you too.

My fallen rage
falls over you for all the things you do.
My fallen rage
falls over you before I'll kill you too.
