

Suicide Serenade

Misery Inc.

I don't owe anyone, call me whatcha want I'm your only son.
I can't take this anymore,
I'll end your life with joy, that's for sure.

My scars are real, my wounds won't heal,
but I see you thru the night

I hate, your faith, salvation's too late, suicide serenade

You owe me everything, call me your son forgiven sin
You can't take this anymore, you'll end your life with joy, that's for sure

My scars are real, my wounds won't heal,
but I see you thru the night

I hate, your faith, salvation's too late, suicide serenade

I can't take this anymore,
I'll end your life with joy, that's for sure.

These scars are real, these wounds won't heal, but I see you thru the night

I hate, your faith, salvation's too late, suicide serenade
