

Dark Shadows

Misfits

It seems like only yesterday
I embraced the eternal flame
I wanna know if I am, I am only ashes
If the sun should shine on me

I wanna taste
What your life has to offer
The longing, the lonely
At Collinwood, at Collinwood

Feel the wind grow stronger
See the full moon rise
Casting its dark shadows
The beast will feed tonight

Feel the wind grow stronger
As the pale moon rose
Casting its dark shadows
For whom the bell will toll

It seems like only yesterday
I embraced the eternal flame
I wanna know if I, I am only ashes
If the sun should shine on me

I wanna taste
What your life has to offer
The longing, the lonely
At Collinwood, at Collinwood

Feel the wind grow stronger
See the full moon rise
Casting its dark shadows
The beast will feed tonight

Feel the wind grow stronger
As the pale moon rose
Casting its dark shadows
For whom the bell will toll
