

Sleepwalkin'

Misfits

I think I hear the Lord a callin'
For the bounty on my head
I think I hear that whistle blowin'
From the train wreck life I led

I know there's disaster
From the nightmare in my bed
Damn it, Lord don't you know?
I'm just sleepwalkin' again

Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up

I think I hear the Lord a callin'
For the bounty on my head
I think I hear that whistle blowin'
From the train wreck life I led

I know there's disaster
From the nightmare in my bed
Damn it, Lord don't you know?
I'm just sleepwalkin' again

Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up

And lay down
Oh, get back and lay down
Brace for attack and lay down
Better start to worry
I hear the wall a creakin'
I know somethin' is seekin' for you

I think I hear the Lord a callin'
For the bounty on my head
I think I hear that whistle blowin'
From the train wreck life I led

I know there's disaster
From the nightmare in my bed
Damn it, Lord don't you know?
I'm just sleepwalkin' again

Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up

And lay down
Oh, get back and lay down
Brace for attack and lay down
Better start to worry
I hear the wall a creakin'

I know somethin' is seekin' for you
