

Now I Do

Misha

Every time I went out you would go crazy
Telling me on the phone to get back home
So afraid in your mind evil might get me
And I thought, "What's the deal"
I put you on hold

Yet again all the same I ran away from you
Looking out for myself, it felt so free
Maturity and dignity was what my mind told me
Late at night sneaking out, that was me

Your truth have become so clear
You don't even have to say a word
I see it must have taken me all the time
To realize you were right

At that time I was a baby
I didn't understand you
But now as I'm listening I do
At that time I was a baby
I didn't understand you
But now as I'm listening I do

Now all my memories are growing
Now I am becoming you
As a child I wouldn't listen
Now I have come to agree with you

I didn't get it I was so young
Now you're higher than high in my eyes
I wanted my way though I couldn't have it
But you were the one who took the compromise

Now when I don't trust in myself
You're the one who believes in me
Each time I am blind to see the bad things
Your go and point them out for me

At that time I was a baby
I didn't understand you
But now as I'm listening I do
At that time I was a baby
I didn't understand you
But now as I'm listening I do

Every time I went out you would go crazy
Telling me on the phone to get back home
So afraid in your mind evil might get me
And I thought, "What's the deal"
I put you on hold

Yet again all the same I ran away from you
Looking out for myself, it felt so free
Maturity and dignity was what my mind told me
Late at night sneaking out, that was me

Oh oh oh

Now when I don't trust in myself
You're the one who believes in me
Each time I am blind to see the bad things
Your go and point them out for me

At that time I was a baby
I didn't understand you
But now as I'm listening I do
At that time I was a baby
I didn't understand you
But now as I'm listening I do

Time...
Realize...
Time...
Realize...