

Fallen To Rise

Mishka

Oh, Why worry yourself with what you don't have?
Give thanks for what you do
Oh, why so many thoughts of tomorrow?
When today is shining here for you!
Oh Redemption
Is it in obscurity?
Oh, maybe I should mention
There is strength, strength in unity!

Well I've fallen and you've fallen
But we will rise
There's still a little time left to go now
So, open your eyes

And I've turned my back so many times
Afraid to face your love
Still you help me ease my mind
With your gift, your gift of Compassion

Well I've fallen and you've fallen
But we will rise
So, open your eyes

Now we've tuned to reality, we've turned a blind eye
Oh a deaf ear to each others cry
We are doing ourselves a great injustice
We should try to find some balance in our lives

Well I've fallen and you've fallen
But we will rise
So, open your eyes

Well, yes and...

I've fallen and you've fallen
But we will rise
So, open your eyes

Oh, oh, oh ohhh...
