

Give You All The Love

Mishka

I'll give you all the love I've got
'Cause you're here tonight
I'll give you all the love I've got
And baby, it's alright

We're sailing into the harbor
Moonlight shining bright over the water
Been at sea for so long, drifting in a haze
Been at sea for so long, now I wanna stay

I really wanna give you all the love I've got
Baby, tonight
I'll give you all the love I've got
And baby, it's alright

Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got
Give you all the love I've got

Oh, don't make me wait anymore
I've traveled so far to reach your shore
Tomorrow is promised to the ones
We should love each other if nothing else is done

I really wanna give you all the love I've got
Baby, tonight, yeah
I'll give you all the love I've got
Now baby, it's alright

Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got

I'll give you all the love I've got
Baby, tonight, yeah
I'll give you all the love I've got
Now baby, it's alright

Give you all the love I've got, alright
Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got
Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah

Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got, alright
Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got, alright

Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got
Give you all the love I've got
Give you all the love I've got

Give you all the love I've got, oh yeah
Give you all the love I've got

Give you all the love I've got
