

No Need To Worry

Mishka

Could you imagine
Everything's just good
And could you start living
That you're not the only fool

No need, no need to worry
Just
No need, no need to worry
Couse you're only in the flow

Could you realize
When you're standing in the greenest feild
Nothing left to desire
All your wounds are healed

No need, no need to worry
Just take it slow
No need, no need to worry

No need, no need to worry
Couse you know, what to know
No need, no need for hurry
Couse you're already in the flow
Yeah you're already in
The flow
