

Don't Take Her Away

Mishon

Oh no no no no no
Oh no no no no no
Yeah

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
There'll be no more sunny days
If she moves away
Tell me why she can't stay

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
There'll be no more sunny days
If she moves away
Tell me why she can't stay

I got up early
Somethin on my mind
Couldn't wait to see you for the last time (no I couldn't)
I remember when I first met you (yeah)
Didn't even wanna play wit you (no)
I never thought a girl could be so cool
(But now) My best friend's leavin me
And deep inside it's hurtin me (so bad)
All summer long we've been best of friends
So tell me will I ever see you again

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
There'll be no more sunny days
If she moves away
Tell me why she can't stay

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
There'll be no more sunny days
If she moves away
Tell me why she can't stay

You're all packed up (packed up)
And you're ready to go
Sittin here wonderin why I was the last to know why
Now she's off in another town
Now my friend won't be comin around
I'm tryin not to cry about it
But I feel so sad about it
I already miss you (miss you)
But what can I do
Playin games just won't be the same (no they won't)
Cuz no matter what I say things will never change

Don't take her away from me

Everything she means to me
If she moves away

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
If she moves away

Got me cryin over you
Tell me what to do
Cryin over you
Tell me what to do

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
There'll be no more sunny days
If she moves away

Don't take her away from me
Can't you see
Everything she means to me
There'll be no more sunny days
If she moves away

Don't take her away from me
Yeah
Are you listenin to me
There'll be no more sunny days
Don't take her away

Best friend
If she moves away
