

Look Over Your Shoulder

Mishon

I'll be somethin like your guardian angel
I promise you I will never change girl
I will be here through the good and the bad
When your sad I got your back

So many night you stay cryin
Cause he calls you up lyin
Sayin he'll be home so don't wait up too late

Don't you ever get tired of these things
He's the reason for your pain
It's not my position girl
To mettle in your life
You have no one to blame
The way he treats you is a shame
Baby all you gotta do is turn your head and..

Look over your shoulder girl
I'll be there
When he puts your down again
Just look back I'll be right there
So when he doesn't come home
And when he leave you alone
You don't have to worry
Just look over your shoulder

Now every time he treats you
Unfair
Baby call you know I'll
Be there
Don't worry how late I
Don't care
Girl I ain't goin
No where
My love is unconditional
What we got just aint typical
Please let me know just when your tired of pain

Don't you ever get tired of these things
He's the reason for your pain
It's not my position girl
To mettle in your life
You have no one to blame
The way he treats you is a shame
Baby all you gotta do is turn your head and..

Look over your shoulder girl
I'll be there
When he puts your down again
Just look back I'll be right there
So when he doesn't come home
And when he leave you alone
You don't have to worry
Just look over your shoulder

(Baby look over your shoulder
I'll be right there

All hours of the day
All hours of the day)

On the outside lookin in
I will be there
Yes I'll be there till the end
I'll be right there (2x)

So when he doesn't (call you)
And when he doesn't (come home)
Girl you don't have to worry (worry)

Look over your shoulder girl
I'll be there
When he puts your down again
Just look back I'll be right there
So when he doesn't come home
And when he leave you alone
You don't have to worry
Just look over your shoulder

(I'll be there
I'll be right by your side day and night)

Look over your shoulder girl
I'll be there
When he puts your down again
Just look back I'll be right there
So when he doesn't come home
And when he leave you alone
You don't have to worry

Just look over your shoulder girl
Shoulder girl
Just look over your should girl
