Think I Love

I think I love my girlfriend I might have been stupid when I told her we may not work Never knew how much that hurt And I didn't really think it out It was too many girls around My ego was bizurk! Didn't catch that red alert!

And after thinkin' bout tha fun times that we spent What I know now I wish I knew back then... because!

I didn't even try and make things work... no I'm sorry cause you feel so bad My hearts so sad that I'm here without you I think I love my girlfriend No one could ever take her place I wanna see her face in my arms again I think I love my girlfriend... yeah!

I was in a silly place Too many friends playin' games Thought it made me cool! Hangin' out with all my dudes And one thing that I didn't mention I didn't give enough attention And now I'm like tha fool! What else am I suppose to do

And after thinkin' bout tha fun times that we spent What I know now I wish I knew back then... because!

I didn't even try and make things work... no I'm sorry cause you feel so bad My hearts so sad that I'm here without you I think I love my girlfriend No one could ever take her place I wanna see her face in my arms again I think I love my girlfriend... yeah!

And girl you know! I always loved you so much! I got so caught up on too much of nothin'! Bein' young I always wanted for us to still be in love Even after we grew up baby!

I didn't even try and make it work I'm sorry cause you feel so bad My hearts so sad that I'm here without you I think I love my girlfriend No one could ever take her place I wanna see her face in my arms again I didn't even try and make it work I'm sorry cause you feel so bad My hearts so sad that I'm here without you I think I love my girlfriend No one could ever take her place!

Mishon

I wanna see her face in my arms again! I think I love my girlfriend!

Heeey! I think I love my girlfriend! Wooooah!
