

Forever Drunk

Miss Li

I am stumblin' out of bed with an aching head hip hurrays and yesterdays seem so far away
i've been wasting my time trying hard to ease the troubles of mine
all those lonely nights

sun goes up and sun goes down i can't feel the beat and i can't hear the sound
round and round all this killing time no I just can't stay forever drunk mirror mirror on the wall where did the good times go mirror mirror i don't know what i'm living for so many nights stumblin' home like a lost little child so many days curtains keeping the light away

When i was seventeen my heart was pure and my heart was all clean but at twenty-three i knew nothings what it seems, life ain't a dream
