

Arms Of The Messiah

Miss May I

Follow paths paved with nothing
This ground is filled with the dead
The haste is brought with the force which it is made
Beyond all hope this is true
Shores expire over horizons
Shores expire over horizons
Waves bury our fathers and consume all that we have loved
Look into their eyes with the flawless feelings that you fake
Prepare for the tides of annihilation
Annihilation
Open your eyes to what you
Have been breathing upon Open your eyes shadows are all we have and they whisper lies (w hisper)
hisper lies)
Blood will be our only escape
These arms bring strength
Behold what we have
Blood will be our only escape
These arms will bring strength
