

Psychotic Romantic

Miss May I

I'm a two faced wreck, and you're the only one to carry on this curse of myself
And manage to look me in the eyes
When I lie, when I tear out the heart I fought to take You've bled out so many times in the crossfire of my mind
I try, then I lose control
You're all I have to bring me back to life when I let go of all
I am
You set me free when my mind strangles me

You overpower the voices in my head
You're deafening my demons
I hear your whispers, that's all that I need

Raised as a broken piece of shit, lost in the world
You discovered me
You handled my insanity

I'm not worthy of such beauty
I'm not worthy of a love like this

There's constantly a struggle in myself
Judgment will forever deceive me
How does someone exist like yourself?
How can anyone take on who I am?
A two faced curse of insanity, a psychotic romantic

Bring me back to life when I let go of all I am
You set me free when my mind strangles me
You overpower the voices in my head
You're deafening my demons
I hear your whispers, that's all I need

I'm not worthy of such beauty
I'm not worthy of a love like this
I'm not worthy
I'm not worthy
