

Save The Last Dance For Me

Missing Heart

Save the last dance for me babe
In the heat of the night
When I'm breathing you in, I'm out of my mind
Tonight

Walking across a crowded room
Everyone turns to look at you
Losing my heart to you all over again

Watching you move your body's away
No-one can make me feel this way
Oh I can hardly wait to hold you again

Save the last dance for me babe
In the heat of the night
When I'm breathing you in, I'm out of my mind
Save the last dance for me babe
When you hold me so tight
I could drown in your love, so throw me a line
Tonight

It doesn't matter what you do
When I'm alone I think of you
I fantasize you're here right by my side

Wherever you go or who you see
Remember you still belong to me
'Cos this is the kind of love that won't be denied
