

Boy I Say To You

Missing Persons

A lasting impression
Isn't something you can ignore
Having had you once
Makes me only want you more

If I ever had the chance
I guess I wouldn't give it another thought
Something should have been said
And you gave me silence instead

What I say you don't wanna hear
What I do you don't wanna know about
And it's you that I had to have
Never knew it would be too much to ask

I need to know the way that you feel
Is this for real
Cause boy I say to you
Don't try to hide
Your feelings inside
Open your eyes
Cause boy I say to you

A lasting impression
Isn't something you can ignore
Yes I've had you once
But I won't have you anymore

If I ever had the chance
I guess I wouldn't give it another thought
A love without the past
But the memories don't always last

What I say you don't wanna hear
What I do you don't wanna know about
And it you that I haven't had
Never knew it would be too much to ask

I need to know the way that you feel
Is this for real
Cause boy I say to you
Don't try to hide
Your feelings inside
Open your eyes
Cause boy I say to you

Don't you know to speak when you're spoken to
Won't you let me know what you're gonna do
This is not a game or a fantasy
How could you be so blind when it comes to me

I need to know the way that you feel
Is this for real
Cause boy I say to you
Don't try to hide
Your feelings inside
Open your eyes

Cause boy I say to you

I need to know the way that you feel

Is this for real

Cause boy I say to you

Don't try to hide

Your feelings inside

Open your eyes

Cause boy I say to you
