

You Only Hide

Missy Higgins

So I keep watch and you keep breaking
Breaking formation to become someone else
And your eyes become corridors, where I wander
With a candle, calling out to you

And you only hide...Because you know I'll find you

You say you just wanna feel
The way you used to feel
The way you should feel
And I wander, I wander through
The lost city of you

And you only hide...Because you know I'll find you
And you only hide because you know I'll find you...
