

Hurricane

MisterWives

Leeches, you're sucking up the life
Creatures, you're not afraid to fight
We're not letting you steal all that molded us
If you only knew you're only made of dust

We are not your property
See with our own clarity
Ears closed, eyes open,
Voice won't be broken
Won't dance within your walls

You'll find us running 'round every town,
Unchaining all your bounds
Everyone's used to crowd,
Throwing your words to the ground
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane
We'll dance to our own beat,
Won't sing to your melody
We don't care if we're the only
People swimming in the sea
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane

Made me care what you think
Only made our bodies sink
Couldn't continue playing the game right
Running with you is your fake light
Tell me how it's good for us again
Raise your brow, get it out and condescend
This is not working,
My lungs are chocking
No longer at your call

You'll find us running 'round every town,
Unchaining all your bounds
Everyone's used to crowd,
Throwing your words to the ground
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane
We'll dance to our own beat,
Won't sing to your melody
We don't care if we're the only
People swimming in the sea
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane

Don't go change your fold,
What happened to being bold
Shaking off what we were told,
Not feeling to do your own
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane

We are not your property
See with our own clarity
Ears closed, eyes open,

Voice won't be broken
Won't dance within your walls

You'll find us running 'round every town,
Unchaining all your bounds
Everyone's used to crowd,
Throwing your words to the ground
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane
We'll dance to our own beat,
Won't sing to your melody
We don't care if we're the only
People swimming in the sea
We'll do this all our own way
Can't change the storm of a hurricane
