

Out of Tune Piano

MisterWives

Out of tune piano, you're looking like my life
All the keys are here, but they don't sound quite right
Out of tune piano, you're bringing me down, down
Make me face all my fears, cut me open like a knife

Try to bleed out, all of my doubt
Try to silence, all my tyrants
They're so heavy, pulling me deeper into the ground
But my heart resounds with

Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Go on and, Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Do I make myself clear?

Out of tune piano, take me back to the day
When all my demons were small, I didn't know them by name
Out of tune piano, give me some clarity
Where I don't feel like I'm sinking, into the depths of the sea

Try to bleed out, all of my doubt
Try to silence, all my tyrants
They're so heavy, pulling me deeper into the ground
But my heart resounds with

Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Go on and, Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Oh, these words are hardest to say, when you never see yourself that way
Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Do I make myself clear?

Celebrate, your struggle and know that it's a gift
Entertain all your troubles with the wind let them drift
Because the worst of times, could be the best of times for someone else's trip
Taste the salt in your tears, knowing that it's the foundation of your ship

La la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la la

Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Go on and, Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear
Oh, these words are hardest to say, when you never see yourself that way
Love yourself my dear, La la la love yourself my dear

Do I make myself clear?
