Glory Bitches Of Doghead

Can you hear them howling? Crying havoc, let slip the leash By spears of longinus bled The glory bitches of doghead

Havoc

Unleash the hounds Bloody hungry eyes burn in the black The stench of sick as God lies befouled On wretched sack

Oh sickle God, oh beasts berserk This is Christ's work

All the buzzing flies, midst the twisted nails The bone and skin Round the serpent pit the rats are screaming Slick with sin

Oh sickle God, oh beasts berserk This is Christ's work

Can you hear them howling? Of the church of filth and the beheaded cross Such holy curse on hell's bile fed The glory bitches of doghead

Unleash the hounds Baying madness from the carrion floor Go bitches forth, avenge the murdered Sainted whore

Oh sickle God, oh beasts berserk This is Christ's work

Can you hear them howling? Beaten, kicked, maimed, drugged Your wretched king from hell cunt born Now seraph choir howl judgement's dawn

Can you hear them howling? Of luckless bastards and child saints Glory lies in the spilling of blood Kill for your king, die for your God
