

Replaceable

Mitchel Musso

Lights and glocks on the tree
People are all around
And nobody can take 'em down
And you can take it all
You're replaceable

Flashes on our phones
And houses are fallin' down
And nobody makes a sound
Now I'm so wasted, oh
You're replaceable

Now pass that
Yeah, hey we can pass that
Make sure no one sees him
(sees him)

I think they watchin'
Yeah, I see 'em watchin'
Baby, turn the lights out
Cuff my hands to the bed
(2x)

Lights and glocks on the tree
People are all around
And nobody can take 'em down
And you can take it all
You're replaceable

Flashes on our phones
And houses are fallin' down
And nobody makes a sound
Now I'm so wasted, oh
You're replaceable

Where the gas at, yeah
Where the papers stacked
You found my happy trail
Well, don't stop that
You wanna pass out, yeah
She wants to pass out
Try to get me under, yeah
The covers where?

Pass, pass, pass
Yeah, can we wait, wait
No one sees him (sees him, him)
I think now pass, pass
Yeah, can we (can) wait, wait
Pass-ss

When I'm lookin' for the key
Mom and dad it seem to be
Never seem to beat it
Ever seen me leavin'
Do you wanna guess?
(Oh oh oh)

When I'm begging for the key
(Oh oh oh)
Mom and dad it seem to be
(Oh oh oh)
Never seem to beat it
Ever seen me leavin'
Do you wanna guess?
(Oh oh oh)

Lights and glocks on the tree
People are all around
(Oh oh oh)
And nobody can take 'em down
(Oh oh oh)
And you can take it all
You're replaceable
(Oh oh oh)

Flashes on our phones
And houses are fallin' down
(Oh oh oh)
And nobody makes a sound
(Oh oh oh)
Now I'm so wasted, oh
You're replaceable
(Oh oh oh)
